

VMAT-203 COMMANDING OFFICER'S POLICY
"FAMILY READINESS"

Preparation and readiness are the keys to our success. Family readiness is no different than aircraft or combat readiness. My goal is to instill the fact that our people and their families are our most valuable asset.

I ask that every Marine in this command to take advantage of the many resources available to ensure that your family is prepared for any contingency. At VMAT-203, we will not be deploying overseas for six plus months, but that does not lessen the need for a well-prepared and well-taken care of family.

Marine Corps Family Team Building and Marine Corps Community Services are there to provide many services to our families. Use them. Excellent programs such as CREDO, L.I.N.K.S., PREP, New Parent Support, Community Counseling, Military OneSource, Exceptional Family Member and Semper Fit (and others) are available for you and your family. Again, use them.

The VMAT-203 Family Readiness Officer is always available to answer your questions and assist you. In their absence, the Executive Officer and Sergeant Major are both well-versed in the many resources available to you and your family.
